

THE ALBANIAN AGENCY FOR RESEARCH, TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION AKTI PRESENTS IN ITS WEBSITE THE NATIONAL CATALOGUE OF INNOVATIONS

By Renata Uruci, BAHZ Director

The Agency for Research, Technology and Innovation of Albania, AKTI presents in its website the results of the Innovation Week organized by the Ministry of Public Administration and Innovation from 10th to 16th May 2014.

In particular, in the homepage of the AKTI website the document presenting the National Catalogue of Innovations is also published. This document was edited in collaboration with BAHZ and it was diffused during the Opening Day of the Innovation Week. AKTI is also spreading the information about the results of the National Catalogue in order to find partners to build a permanent national service for human development innovation in the country.
