

SEED INITIATIVE IS LAUNCHING THE 2015 AWARDS FOR ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

The Seed Initiative will launch the 2015 SEED Awards to support entrepreneurs for sustainable development. The call for applications of the SEED Awards 2015 is due to be opened in February 2015.

The SEED Initiative, founded by UNEP, UNDP and IUCN at the 2002 World Summit on Sustainable Development in Johannesburg is a global partnership for action on sustainable development and the green economy.

The SEED Award for Entrepreneurship in Sustainable Development is designed to find the most innovative and locally led start-up social and environmental enterprises in countries with developing and emerging economies. An international jury of experts selects enterprises which have the potential to make real improvements in poverty eradication and environmental sustainability while contributing to a greener economy.

The Seed Initiative web site presents the winners of the 2014 SEED Awards, coming from South Africa, Uganda, Tanzania, Ethiopia, Mozambique, Colombia, Malawi, Viet Nam, India and Bangladesh. The winners are managing innovative enterprises that could be of interest for other territories and local development actors.

The date of the 2015 SEED Awards opening of the call for applications will be soon announced in the Seed Initiative website.
