

Festival of Cultures SUQ Genoa. The Bazaar of the Peoples

From 13 to 24 June 2012, in Genoa, the XIV edition of one the more important festival of cultures in Italy will take place. SUQ Festival is sponsored by UNESCO and by the Italian Ministries of: Foreign Affairs; Environment; Heritage and Culture; Integration; International Cooperation. Representatives of 35 countries will participate.

The program of the festival foresees over 100 events focused on "Identity and Differences": theater, music and dance performances, literary meetings, debates, exhibitions of handicrafts from 30 countries and food stands from 12 countries.

Moreover, during the Festival initiatives on environmental issues will take place, implemented in collaboration with Muvita foundation, which are involved in environmental education and sustainable energy and development issues.

In 2011, SUQ Festival attracted more than 65,000 representatives of immigrant communities, of diplomatic world, international artists and craftsmen, confirming the importance of dialogue and integration between different peoples and cultures.

To learn more

www.suggenova.it

To participate

email: festival@suggenova.it