

Outcome of the International Seminar on Animal and Plant Health 2011 held in Cuba

Representatives of 36 countries participated in the International Seminar, held in Havana from 3rd to 6th May 2011, on Animal and Plant Health, organized by the Cuban National Centre for Agricultural Health. Among the countries represented there were the following ones: Angola, Argentina, Belgium , Belize, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Denmark, Ecuador, Spain, United States, France, Britain, India, Iran, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Luxembourg, Mexico, Nicaragua, New Zealand, Peru, Uruguay, Venezuela and Zimbabwe.

Researchers, producers and managers exchanged experiences through presentations and discussions on the most updated scientific and technological information. 516 presentations on the role of Animal and Plant Health in the food production sector were submitted.

For more information

Conclusions of SISA 2011

Program of the seminar

National Centre for Agricultural Health of Cuba web site