

IDEASS IS CONCLUDING EXHIBITION OF ITS INNOVATIONS AT THE DEVNET PAVILION AT THE SHANGHAI WORLD EXPO

Daniel Barrios
DEVNET Director General

The conclusion of the Shanghai World Expo 2010 will be celebrated on October 31st 2010. In the framework of the Expo, DEVNET hosted and promoted, in the main hall of its Pavilion, an exhibition of the International Innovations Catalogue of the IDEASS Program.

During the Expo (1st May – 31 October 2010) hundreds of thousands of visitors of the Pavilion expressed great interest in the innovations displayed.

During the Expo, more than 3,800 visitors from China visited the IDEASS website.

DEVNET is a non-governmental organization recognized by the ECOSOC of the United Nations, which implements cooperation projects and creates inter-regional networks for the exchange of information for socio-economic development. It granted a space for the presentation of IDEASS on the basis of a partnership already established with the program to strengthen the promotion and dissemination of innovations for human development.

DEVNET is very pleased about the results achieved and looks forward to continuing this fruitful cooperation through other initiatives so as to promote innovations for human development. For more information please visit: www.devnetnet.org
