

THE WINNERS OF THE 2019 SEED AWARDS FOR ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

In October 2019, the SEED Initiative has announced the 14 winners of the 2019 SEED Awards, highlighting the contribution of green and social enterprises to advancing the Sustainable Development Goals.

Out of 906 applications across 9 countries, the 14 Winners and 52 Finalists represent the most innovative and promising locally led start-up eco-inclusive enterprises.

The SEED website presents the winning enterprises for the three schemes of the 2019 SEED Awards:

SEED Low Carbon Awards

Aikya Organics. An alternative organic produce value chain managed by women farmers. India.

Fang Thai Factory \(GROW\). High quality, environmental friendly rice straw paper. Thailand.

Hustlenomics. Providing access to affordable and adequate housing. South Africa.

Mycotech. Mushroom leather that is better for the planet. Indonesia.

Nelplast Eco Ghana Limited. Recycling plastic waste into pavement slabs and paving tiles. Ghana.

Tusafishe Low Cost Institutional Water Filters. Automated low-cost filters for safe drinking water. Uganda.

SEED Africa Awards

Dytech Limited. Producing moveable, durable and productive beehives. Zambia.

Enrapower. Solar wholesaler focusing on small and medium business clients. Zimbabwe.

Green Impact Technologies. Providing affordable renewable energy through PAYG to un-electrified communities. Malawi.

Kibebe. Modern African design upcycled products created by marginalised artisans. Malawi.

Kukula Solar. Transforming Lives Through Solar. Zambia.

SEED South Africa Climate Adaptation

AfriLeap. Producer and supplier of hydroponically grown quality hop cones. Johannesburg, South Africa.

BN Aqua Solutions. Providing innovative water solutions. Pretoria, South Africa.

Meat Naturally. Empowering sustainable farming and rangeland restoration. Matatiele, South Africa.

The SEED Awards 2019 are supported by the German Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety and the Flanders Government. The SEED Award winners will receive free access to supporting institutions and tailored advisory services, as well as additional marketing and promotional activities by SEED. The winners will also join the network of the enterprises in Africa, Asia and Latin America, laureates of the SEED Awards.

The SEED website also presents all the eco-inclusive enterprises winning the different editions of the Awards and supported by the initiative. These enterprises are managing innovative technologies that could be of interest for other territories and local development actors

To know more

SEED Initiative website

2019 SEED Awards Winners

SEED all Award winners

SEED programmes

SEED Supporters and Partners

Eco-inclusive enterprises supported by SEED

