

YOUTH SOLUTIONS REPORT 2019

SHOWCASING 50 YOUTH-LED INNOVATIVE PROJECTS

In September 2019, the 3rd edition of the Youth Solutions Report has been released at the 74th United Nations General Assembly. The Report is the flagship publication of the Youth Solutions Program, an initiative of the UN Sustainable Development Solutions Network (SDSN).

Chapter 2 of the Report showcases 50 youth-led solutions that are accelerating global progress on the achievement of the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The Report provides a one page-summary about each solution and also gives access to the authors' website, allowing to know in detail the characteristics of the projects.

Selected by an Advisory Panel on the basis of 4,344 proposals received from 174 countries, these solutions highlight the great potential of young people's creativity to implement the 2030 Agenda.

SDSN Youth is the youth initiative of the UN Sustainable Development Solutions Network (SDSN), focused on empowering youth globally to create sustainable development solutions. SDSN Youth creates opportunities for young people to use their creativity and knowledge to pioneer innovative solutions for the SDGs. The initiative creates platforms for young people to connect, collaborate, and integrate their ideas and perspectives within the public policy field.

The Youth Solutions Report 2019 notes an urgent need to address youth-led innovation cross-cutting challenges and highlights the importance of seeing young people as a fundamental component of the broader innovation systems that are required to implement the 2030 Agenda.
